

Board Member Bio

Gary Herbella, Chair

Gary Herbella moved to Highlands Ranch in 1994 because he liked that the community was close to work, and had great trails as well as recreation centers. Today he enjoys living in Highlands Ranch because “It provides most of the lifestyle amenities I’m looking for in close proximity to work and the mountains,” Gary explains.

He has served on the Metro District Board since 1999, and is most proud of the enhanced park and recreation facilities and more effective transportation options both within the Ranch and to the primary Denver metro destinations. He is also proud that today there is a stronger sense of community identity.

Gary has been an aerospace industry engineer since 1982, and is currently a manager at United Launch Alliance in Centennial. He also volunteers with a variety of organizations in the Denver area.
