Steve Ormiston

Steve Ormiston has called Highlands Ranch home since 1982. He bought his first home here after getting married and wanted to live near work. He calls Highlands Ranch “a terrific place to raise a family.”

First elected to the Metro District Board in 1995, Steve states, “My hope is that the Metro District provides quality facilities and services to residents at a reasonable cost.” Employed as Vice President Planning for Shea Homes, Steve also serves on the Centennial Water & Sanitation District Board of Directors, and is involved with the Southeast Business Partnership, NAIOP, the Colorado Association of Home Builders and his church.

Steve and his wife Cathy Ormiston have two sons: Craig and Kyle.
