

Board Member Bio

Victoria Starkey

Vicky chose Highlands Ranch as her home in 1983 because it was a “great place to raise a family, has great amenities and schools, and because of the location.” Elected to the Metro District Advisory Board in 2006, she strives as a board member to continue current service levels and work collaboratively with all service providers while being fiscally conservative.

Living in Highlands Ranch, Vicky enjoys the active lifestyle, people and the close proximity to services. She earned a Masters degree in Public Administration from the University of Colorado at Denver, and has been employed for 15 years as Facilities Manager for Douglas County government. Her additional community activities include Team Highlands Ranch and the Partnership of Douglas County Governments. Vicky and her husband Rick have three grown children.
